Extract of a Letter from Major-General Medows, dated Bombay, January 7, 1782, received at the Office of the Earl of Shelburne, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, May 30.

AS Governor Hornby acquaints me that he ſhall have an Opportunity of diſpatching a Letter by Land Tomorrow, I have juſt Time to inform your Lordſhip of our Arrival at this Place on the 4th with the Monmouth, Hero and Iſis Men of War, and about 300 of the 98th Regiment, both the Troops and Seamen in the higheſt Health and Spirits, and eager as their Officers to be employed. The Manilla Armed Tranſport is come in ſince, and the Reſt, as we left them about Four Weeks ago in Morebat Bay, from whence I had the Honor to ſend your Lordſhip Diſpatches by Major Rooke, who was to return by Alexandria, we expect and hope for every Day.

Extracts of Letters from William Hornby, Eſq; dated Bombay, the 27th and 31ſt of January, and received at Buſſora, March 16, 1782.

SINCE my laſt to you a few Days paſt, I have to acquaint you, that all the Armed Ships, Store-ſhips and Tranſports, except One or Two of the latter, arrived, and will ſail the 30th, for the Coromandel Coaſt. The Latham, Oſterley, Locko, and Aſia Indiamen, and One Tranſport, got to Mocha, where they arrived the 4th or 5th of December; they were Part of the Convoy with Captain Alms, and parted Company with him on the Coaſt of Arabia.

The 26th Inſtant I wrote you by a Dingey bound to Muſcat, informing you that the Troops which I ſent to reinforce Tellicherry arrived ſafe, and landed the 30th Ult. and Major Abingdon, with thoſe and a Part of their former Garriſon, marched out from the Braſs Pagoda the 8th Inſtant, at Four A. M. acroſs the Batty Grounds to the Eaſtward, and paſſed Two of the Enemy's advanced Poſts or Pickets, and got round to the Eaſtward of Great

Putney

Putney Hill, between that and Ponnolla Meſſa: The advanced Party under Captain Whippey immediately attacked, ſtormed and took the former, without the Loſs of a Man on our Side: The main Body immediately puſhed for the Camp of the Enemy, and came upon them juſt at Break of Day, whom they fell on, and immediately put to the Route; when they followed them to the Southward as far as Currachee, a ſmall Fort about One Mile to the Northward of Mihie River; This Poſt they preſently carried, and turned its Guns upon the Enemy, who were making the beſt of their Way towards the River. Saddos Cawn, who made this Poſt his Head Quarters, quitted and got to a fortified Houſe, and encloſed within Walls, cut out of a Hill, where he, with ſeveral of his People, made an obſtinate Defence; but at laſt the Roof of the Houſe was ſet on Fire, which obliged them to quit it, when many were killed endeavouring to make their Eſcape. Saddos Cawn had ſecreted himſelf in Part of the Encloſure, which was Bomb Proof, cut into the Hill, where he and his Family were found; himſelf had been wounded by a Muſquet Ball in the Ancle, and was not able to move. They were all immediately ſeized, and ſent in Priſoners to Tellichelly, with about 1500 Priſoners which had been made during the Morning. There was about 400 of the Enemy killed and drowned. On our Side there was not above 50 killed and wounded, and only One of our Officers hurt, which was Lieutenant Woodington. We took Six Braſs Field Pieces, about Sixty Iron Cannon, and Four Mortars, Thirteen Elephants, and a large Quantity of Shot, Powder, Stores, &c. in their Redoubts and Batteries.

The ſame Evening, about Seven o'Clock, Lieutenant Hodges was ſent with a ſtrong Detachment againſt Fort George, which the Enemy getting Intelligence of, they evacuated the Fort, and he took quiet Poſſeſſion of it. About Two o'Clock in the Morning a Body was ſent over and took Poſſeſſion of Mihie; and another Party, under Captain Whippey, went over and took Poſſeſſion of Durmapatam, which Iſland they found deſerted by the Enemy. In ſhort, there is not a Man of Hyder's left between Cotta Point five Leagues to the Southward, and to the Northward as far as Cannanore. This was a very complete Buſineſs.

All the Veſſels that were expected to arrive here by Captain Alms have arrived; the Nancy Tender was the laſt, and ſhe arrived Yeſterday Morning. All the reſt, except the Porpoiſe Store ſhip, Elizabeth, Eagle Snow, and Nancy Tranſports, have all ſailed to join the Squadron. The Latham, Oſterley, and Locko Indiamen, with the Content Tranſport, are ſaid to have arrived at Mocha the 4th ult.
